Dear Friend, dear Colleague,

it's a pleasure to invite you at the Ravenna International Course in Ophthalmology (R.I.C.O.) programmed in Ravenna in September 2007. It's a Three Day Meeting of Ophthalmology which includes two International Courses: a Traumatology Course, coordinated by Ferenc Kuhn and a Retinal Detachment Course, coordinated by Ingrid Kreissig.

On the first day of Thursday 13th Ocular Traumas will be revised, from the most recent diagnostic techniques to surgical treatment following the "Pole to pole" strategy and the "Dancer philosophy", so rather treating the traumatized eye in its' wholeness, beyond conventional academic boundaries. Keratoprosthesis and Anterior Segment Traumas will also be discussed.

A Special Session on New frontiers of anti-VEGF will take place at the end of the day. The second and third day (Friday 14th and Saturday 15th) will be dedicated to Retinal Detachment, from the diagnosis to the different therapeutic strategies.

On Friday 14th the 54° Retinal Detachment Course on the ab-externo approach, held by Prof. Ingrid Kreissig will focus on minimal episcleral techniques.

On Saturday 15th Prof. P. Kroll and Prof. E. De Juan will direct the session on the Primary Vitrectomy with 23 and 25 Gauge mini-invasive techniques. Retinal detachment involves daily all Ophthalmologists, not only the surgical departments. Every Ophthalmologist should be able to recognize it and manage a correct follow-up.

Even if in the last years we assisted to great technological improvements, results are still unsuccessful in some cases and sometimes severe complications may be experienced.

In this meeting we want to examine the latest innovations and experiences on this topic.

In times where surgery is becoming more accurate and less invasive the purpose of this meeting is to compare different approaches and philosophies for rhegmatogenous retinal detachment. These Courses will offer the participants some tips on which technique should be used.

The Organizer

Cesare Forlini

Caro Amico, caro Collega,

è per me un piacere invitarvi al Ravenna International Course in Ophthalmology (R.I.C.O.) in programma a Ravenna nel Settembre 2007. Questo Incontro è una 3-giorni di Oftalmologia che include due Corsi Internazionali: un Corso di Traumatologia Oculare diretto da Ferenc Kuhn, ed un Corso sul Distacco di Retina, coordinato da Ingrid Kreissig.

Il primo giorno Giovedì 13 sarà affrontata la Traumatologia Oculare, dalle più recenti tecniche diagnostiche al trattamento chirurgico, seguendo la strategia "Pole to pole" e la filosofia del "Dancer", ovvero trattare il bulbo traumatizzato nella sua interezza, oltrepassando le barriere accademiche. Saranno trattati anche le Cheratoprosesi ed i traumi del segmento anteriore.

A fine giornata vi sarà una Sessione Speciale sulle nuove frontiere dei farmaci anti-VEGF.

Il secondo ed il terzo giorno (Venerdì 14 e Sabato 15) saranno dedicati al Distacco di Retina Regmatogeno, dalla diagnosi alle differenti strategie terapeutiche.

In particolare, Venerdì 14 si svolgerà il "54° Retinal Detachment Course" sull'approccio ab-externo, diretto dalla Prof. Ingrid Kreissig e sarà focalizzato sull'approccio minimale con tecnica episclerale.

Sabato 15 il Prof. P. Kroll ed il Prof. E. De Juan dirigeranno la sessione sulla Primari Vitrectomy con tecniche 23 e 25 gauge nel Distacco di retina Regmatogeno.

Il Distacco di Retina coinvolge quotidianamente tutti gli Oftalmologi, non solo nei Reparti Chirurgici. Ogni Oftalmologo dovrebbe essere in grado di diagnosticare e gestire un corretto follow-up del paziente con Distacco di Retina. Nonostante negli ultimi anni abbiamo assistito a notevoli cambiamenti e miglioramenti tecnologici, i risultati sono ancora insoddisfacenti in alcuni casi, e talora insorgono gravi complicanze.

In questo Congresso, vogliamo esaminare le ultime innovazioni ed esperienze su questo argomento sempre attuale.

In un momento storico in cui la chirurgia sta diventando sempre più accurate e meno invasive, lo scopo di questo Incontro è confrontare le differenti filosofie di approccio al Distacco di Retina Regmatogeno. Da tali Corsi, i partecipanti verranno arricchiti sulle più recenti strategie e tecniche chirurgiche.
